A Brief History of the Event:

“Art for the Park” is in its 3rd year. The event is being organized and hosted by the Chattahoochee Plantation Women’s Club (CPWC), a non-profit organization. Their mission is to promote social contacts with our neighbors, to beautify our neighborhood, to conserve natural resources, and to serve a charitable purpose in our community. Support for McFarlane Nature Park, 11.5 acres in the heart of our neighborhood, is an important part of that mission. The park was gifted to the community by the late Florence McFarlane, to be preserved and maintained in its natural state. The Cobb Land Trust oversees McFarlane Nature Park as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, volunteer run organization, and relies solely on the generosity of community private donations. More information about the park is available at:

Artist Participation: Invited artists will be responsible for their own set-up and sales. Free WiFi available. In addition to fees for booth space a 20% donation of proceeds will be collected. A receipt book (3 copies) will be provided to each artist and collected at the end of each day. At the conclusion of the event, each artist will be given a total of the amount owed and will be required to write a check payable to:

CPWC( tax-deductible donation)

The show will be highlighted in Chattahoochee Plantation Living, our community magazine, along with other East Cobb publications. Invitations will be sent to the residents of 1,200 homes in the Atlanta Country Club area, a relatively high income demographic. Our participating artists will be given electronic marketing materials to invite friends, family and clients to the show. Signage will also be provided for directions to the event. A program will also include all participating artists.
